NOTICE OF REMOVAL

AND NOW, comes defendant, Ashley Furniture Industries, Inc., for the purpose only of removing the cause to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and respectfully aver as follows:

1. This is a civil action filed and now pending in the Court of Common Pleas of Berks County, Pennsylvania, Civil Action No. 11-2935.
2. On or about, October 11, 2011, plaintiffs commenced this matter by filing a Writ of Summons in the Berks County Court of Common Pleas in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. (See true and correct copy of writ of summons marked as Exhibit "A."). Service of the writ was made October 18, 2011 by certified mail.
3. The ability to remove this matter could not be determined from the face of the Writ of Summons, which contains no information regarding the suit, other than the identities of the parties.
4. On December 22, 2011, plaintiffs filed their complaint. (See attached true and correct copy of complaint marked as Exhibit "B"). The complaint was served on moving defendant by way of regular mail dated December 23, 2011, and received by counsel for moving defendant on December 26, 2011.

5. The averments made herein are true and correct with respect to the date and time upon which suit was commenced and the date upon which this notice is being filed.

6. This suit is of a civil nature and involves a controversy between citizens of different states. Plaintiff is a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of Minnesota. Defendant, Ashley Furniture Industries, Inc. is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Wisconsin. Defendant, Regency Furniture is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Maryland..

7. Defendant, Ashley Furniture Industries, Inc. has simultaneously with the filing of this notice, given written notice to the plaintiff and co-defendant, Regency Furniture, Inc.

8. Defendant, Ashley Furniture Industries, Inc. is also filing a copy of the instant notice of removal and all attachments thereto with the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of Berks County.

9. The complaint asserts claims against the defendant, Ashley Furniture Industries, Inc. for personal injuries to George Richard arising out of an incident which occurred at Regency Furniture, Inc. on October 13, 2009.

10. Defendant, Ashley Furniture Industries, Inc., seeks to remove this matter to the United State District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Defendant, Ashley Furniture Industries, Inc. asserts that the potential amount in controversy in this matter exceeds $75,000. As the moving party, defendant, Ashley Furniture Industries, Inc., bears the burden of proving that jurisdiction is proper in federal court. Russ vs. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, 961 F.Supp. 808, 810 (E.D. Pa. 1997).

11. In determining whether the jurisdiction amount has been satisfied, the Court must first look at the complaint. Angus vs. Shiley, Inc., 989 F.2d 142, 145 (3rd Circ. 1993).

12. The lawsuit demands an amount “in excess of $50,000.00 and asserts that George Richard’s injuries include a concussion with persistent and recurring vertigo, recurring headaches, difficult seeing with his right eye and hearing loss. (See attached Complaint at Exhibit “B” at ¶¶ 30, 33). The underlying lawsuit further asserts that George Richard has been unable to return to work in twenty six months since the incident. Id. at ¶ 32.

13. On January 11, 2012, Nicholas Cummins, counsel for removing defendant, spoke with counsel for plaintiff, who stated that the amount in controversy was in excess of $75,000.00, and that plaintiff would not stipulate to limit damages at or below that figure. (See true and correct email exchanged between counsel dated January 11, 2012 marked as Exhibit “C.”).

14. The remaining defendant, Regency Furniture, Inc., has its principal place of business at 7900 Cedarville Road, Brandywine, MD and is incorporated in the State of Maryland.

15. Upon information supplied by plaintiff’s counsel, Regency Furniture, Inc. was served with the Complaint by regular mail during the week of January 2, 2011. Although the exact date is unknown, less than thirty days have elapsed since service of the complaint on Regency Furniture.

16. Regency Furniture has not yet retained counsel to assent to removal. It is expected that filed assent of Regency Furniture will be made with the court shortly, and within the time periods prescribed by law.

WHEREFORE, defendant, Ashley Furniture Industries, Inc., hereby removes this suit to this Honorable Court pursuant to the laws of the United States in such cases made and provided.

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff George Richard, by and his their attorneys, White and Williams LLP, hereby asserts claims in this Complaint against defendants Ashley Furniture Industries, Inc. and Regency Furniture, Inc., and in support thereof avers as follows:

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff Richard is an individual residing at 544 Stuyvesant Avenue, 2nd Floor, Irvington, NJ 07111 that, at all times relevant to the within matter, served as an agent representing Anderson Trucking Service, Inc. (hereinafter "Anderson") in the capacity of an owner/operator truck driver.

2. Defendant Ashley Furniture Industries, Inc. (hereinafter "Ashley") is a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of Wisconsin with a principal place of business located at One Ashley Way, Arcadia, Wisconsin 54612.

3. Defendant Regency Furniture, Inc. (hereinafter "Regency") is a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of Maryland with a principal place of business located at 7900 Cedarville Road, Brandywine, Maryland 20613.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. This Court has jurisdiction over the Defendants and the subject matter of this action based upon the following substantial contacts with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

- (a) Defendants have conducted and continue to conduct substantial business in Pennsylvania on a regular basis.
- (b) The conduct giving rise to this action occurred in Pennsylvania.

5. Venue is proper in Berks County because Defendants regularly conduct business in Berks County, and the conduct giving rise to this action occurred in Berks County.

FACTS

6. At all times relevant to the within matter, Richard lawfully possessed a valid driver's license for the purpose of operating a semi-trailer truck on all federal, state and local roads and highways.

7. At all times relevant to the within matter, Richard complied with all codes and regulations set forth by the United States Department of Transportation in relation to drivers operating semi-trailer trucks on all federal, state and local roads and highways

8. At all times relevant to the within matter, Defendant Ashley operated a furniture distribution facility located at 45 Ashley Way, Leesport, Pennsylvania 19533 (hereinafter "Ashley location").

9. At all times relevant to the within matter, Defendant Regency operated a furniture store located at 7900 Cedarville Road, Brandywine, Maryland 20613 (hereinafter "Regency premises").

10. As a semi-trailer truck driver for Anderson, Richard was responsible for picking up and delivering semi-trailers to various businesses throughout the United States.

11. At all times relevant to the within matter, Richard would receive his delivery and pickup assignments from a dispatcher at Anderson who would provide the specific details of those assignments to Richard.

12. As part of his responsibilities in the representation of Anderson, Richard would sometimes receive assignments requiring him to deliver an empty semi-trailer to one business, then pick up a sealed, loaded semi-trailer from that same business and deliver it to another location/business.

13. During these afore-mentioned assignments, Richard was not responsible for selecting, loading, packing, or securing the contents of the semi-trailers.

14. During these afore-mentioned assignments, Richard's duties were limited solely to attaching/hooking up the sealed, loaded semi-trailer to his truck, delivering it to its final destination, and opening the doors of the semi-trailer at the final destination after the receiver had removed the seal initially put in place by the sender.

15. Pursuant to standard industry practice, an agent/employee of the company/business shipping the goods will place a seal, with a seal number affixed thereto, upon all semi-trailers once fully loaded and secured according to the specifics of that shipment's bill of lading, and that seal is to remain undisturbed until the semi-trailer reaches its final destination.

16. Pursuant to standard industry practice, the doors of the semi-trailer truck are to be opened by the driver after the seal has been confirmed by an agent of the receiving company/business and removed, but before the semi-trailer is backed up to the loading dock.

17. On or about October 13, 2009, Richard received an assignment from the Anderson dispatcher instructing him to drop off an empty semi-trailer at the Ashley location, then pick up a sealed, loaded semi-trailer from the Ashley location and deliver it to the Regency premises.

18. Once Richard dropped off the empty semi-trailer at the Ashley location, he was directed by security personnel at the Ashley location to a separate area where he was to pick up a different semi-trailer that had already been loaded with boxed furniture, closed and sealed under seal number 2791331 (hereinafter "the trailer").

19. At no point in time did Richard see the trailer being loaded or observe the final results of the loading process before the doors to the trailer were closed and sealed by Ashley.

20. After Richard attached and properly secured the trailer to his truck, he proceeded to the security office at the Ashley location gates to have the seal checked, obtain a copy of the bill of lading, and confirm the address where he was to deliver the trailer.

21. Upon receiving his instructions from Ashley that the trailer was to be delivered to the Regency premises, approximately 170 miles away, Richard proceeded directly to the Regency premises without stopping.

22. At no point in time during his travels from the Ashley location to the Regency premises on October 13, 2009 was Richard involved in a motor vehicle accident.

23. At no point in time during his travels from the Ashley location to the Regency premises on October 13, 2009 was Richard required to perform any sudden, evasive driving tactics including, but not limited to, swerving or sudden braking.

24. Upon arriving at the Regency premises, Richard reported to the shipping office to advise them that he had arrived with the trailer.

25. After notifying the Regency premises' shipping office of his arrival, Richard returned to his truck to wait until a loading dock was available for him to detach the trailer from his truck.

26. Once Richard was advised by Regency of the loading dock where he was to drop off the trailer, he proceeded to that loading dock where the seal was checked before being removed from the rear double doors of the trailer.

27. Before backing the trailer up to the specified loading dock, Richard opened the rear double doors of the trailer.

28. Richard did not experience any initial problems with opening the rear double doors of the trailer .

29. As soon as the rear double doors were opened, a box containing furniture fell on top of Richard's head from atop the stacked boxes.

30. As a result of being struck in the head by the falling boxed furniture, Richard sustained serious and permanent injuries including, but not limited to, a concussion with persistent and recurring vertigo, recurring headaches, difficulty seeing with his right eye, and hearing loss.

31. Due to the afore-mentioned injuries, Richard has been unable to return to work as a truck driver.

32. Richard continues to suffer from the afore-mentioned injuries, and his daily, normal activities are persistently and adversely impacted by same.

33. Plaintiff Richard now seeks to recover damages in excess of $50,000.00 against Defendants Ashley and Regency for current and future injuries, past and future loss of income, and pain and suffering.

COUNT I - NEGLIGENCE
RICHARD v. ASHLEY

34. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 33 as though set forth at length herein.

35. At all times relevant hereto, Ashley acted by and through its agents, servants, employees and subcontractors, each of whom was working in the course and scope of his or her employment and was in the scope of his or her authority, subject to the control, direction of, and for the benefit of his or her respective principal and employer, Ashley.

36. Upon retaining Anderson for the purposes of delivering the trailer to the Regency premises, Defendant Ashley was charged with the duty to exercise reasonable care in the loading, packing, and securing of the boxed furniture contained within the trailer so as to insure that those goods were safely and properly stacked, thereby preventing those goods from falling on Richard once the rear double doors were opened.

37. Ashley, by and through the actions and/or omissions of its agents, servants, representatives, subcontractors, subagents, workmen, and/or employees acting in the course and scope of their authority and employment, breached its duties by way of the following acts and/or omissions:

- a. failing to properly load the boxed furniture in the trailer;
- b. failing to properly pack the boxed furniture in the trailer;
- c. failing to adequately secure the boxed furniture in the trailer;
- d. failing to adequately inspect the trailer once the boxed furniture was loaded, packed, and secured;
- e. failing to warn Richard of the unreasonable hazards and dangerous conditions posed by the boxed furniture;

- f. failing to employ competent individuals to load, pack and secure the boxed furniture in the trailer;
- g. failing to adequately oversee and/or supervise the loading, packing and securing of the boxed furniture in the trailer;
- h. failing to adopt, enact, employ, and enforce adequate safety programs, precautions, procedures, and plans;
- i. failing to properly abide by all applicable codes, regulations, guidelines, and/or industry practices with respect to the loading, packing and securing of the boxed furniture in the trailer;
- j. failing to use due care under the circumstances; and
- k. other and further particulars which will be shown at the time of trial.

38. Defendant Ashley's breach of the afore-mentioned duties was the direct and proximate cause of the injuries suffered by Richard, including, but not limited to, a concussion with persistent and recurring vertigo, recurring headaches, difficulty seeing with his right eye, and hearing loss.

39. As a direct and proximate result of the injuries sustained due to the October 13, 2009 incident, Richard was caused to suffer damages in excess of $50,000.00.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff George Richard, Individually, demands judgment against Ashley Furniture Industries, Inc. for damages in excess of $50,000.00, together with interest, attorney's fees, costs of suit, and such other relief the court may deem appropriate.

COUNT II - NEGLIGENCE
RICHARD v. REGENCY

40. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 34 through 39 as though set forth at length herein.

41. At all times relevant hereto, Regency acted by and through its agents, servants, employees and subcontractors, each of whom was working in the course and scope of his or her employment and was in the scope of his or her authority, subject to the control, direction of, and for the benefit of his or her respective principal and employer, Regency.

42. Once provided access to the Regency premises, Richard became a business invitee of Regency, and Defendant Regency was charged with the duty to exercise reasonable care in the supervision of unloading the trailer so as to insure that the boxed furniture contained therein was safely and properly removed once the seal was removed from the trailer's rear double doors, thereby preventing those goods from falling onto Richard once the rear double doors were opened.

43. Regency, by and through the actions and/or omissions of their agents, servants, representatives, subcontractors, subagents, workmen, and/or employees acting in the course and scope of their authority and employment, breached their duties by way of the following acts and/or omissions:

- a. failing to properly unload the boxed furniture in the trailer once the seal was removed and the rear double doors of the trailer were opened;
- b. failing to adequately secure the boxed furniture in the trailer once the seal was removed and the rear double doors of the trailer were opened;
- c. failing to adequately inspect the trailer once the seal was removed and the rear double doors of the trailer were opened;
- d. failing to warn Richard of the unreasonable hazards and dangerous conditions posed by the boxed furniture;
- e. failing to employ competent individuals to unload and secure the boxed furniture in the trailer once the seal was removed and the rear double doors of the trailer were opened;
- f. failing to adequately oversee and/or supervise the unloading and securing of the boxed furniture once the seal was removed and the rear double doors of the trailer were opened;
- g. failing to adopt, enact, employ, and enforce adequate safety programs, precautions, procedures, and plans;

- h. failing to properly abide by all applicable codes, regulations, guidelines, and/or industry practices with respect to the unloading, securing, and supervising of the boxed furniture once the seal was removed and the rear double doors of the trailer were opened;
- i. failing to use due care under the circumstances; and
- j. other and further particulars which will be shown at the time of trial.

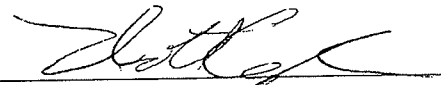

44. Defendant Ashley's breach of the afore-mentioned duties was the direct and proximate cause of the injuries suffered by Richard including, but not limited to, a concussion with persistent and recurring vertigo, recurring headaches, difficulty seeing with his right eye, and hearing loss.

45. As a direct and proximate result of the injuries sustained due to the October 13, 2009 incident, Richard was caused to suffer damages in excess of $50,000.00.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff George Richard, Individually, demands judgment against Regency Furniture, Inc. for damages in excess of $50,000.00, together with interest, attorney's fees, costs of suit, and such other relief the court may deem appropriate.

Additionally, further to our conversation, this will confirm plaintiff is not willing to limit his personal injury claim to $75,000, so once you make contact with the Regency folks, please feel free to remove the case. Best regards.

Robert,

Following up on my voice mail, we represent Ashley and I had two questions for you:

1) We intend to remove both cases to federal court, unless you are willing to stipulate to limit the damages in the personal injury claim to $75,000.00. Please let me know.

1/11/2012

2) Have you made service on Regency?

Thanks for your help.
